"ALWAYS THE BEST FOR THE OGDEN GUEST"

Ogden Sugar Men
Buy West Cache
Plant; $1,000,000

Sale of 8 per cent of the capital stock of the West Cache Sugar company was made yesterday by Ernest B. Woolley to the David Eccles company of Ogden for a substantial sum. The sale was completed at a stockholders' meeting of the West Cache company in which the vote of those present was unanimously in favor of the sale. It was announced yesterday following purchase of the stock of the company from Mr. Woolley, the David Eccles company sold it to the Amalgamated Sugar company of Ogden, for $1,000,000. The Amalgamated to assume the payment of the present outstanding debts of the West Cache company.

PLANT IN CACHE.
The West Cache factory is located in the fertile Cache valley, where the soil is well adapted to the raising of sugar beets and where the Amalgamated already has one factory. The mill has a daily slicing capacity of from 600 to 700 tons and will begin its operations with the 1920 crop Monday.

The original plant of the West Cache, was erected by the Jesse Knight interests at Raymond, Canada. After the undertaking had proved a failure there, John A. Hendrickson and Lorenzo N. Stohl purchased the factory for the company they were then organizing, the West Cache Sugar company.

Later, when the company was financially embarrassed, Jesse Knight sold his stock in the company to Mr. Woolley. At the time of this sale there were labor liens amounting to $275,000 against the company. During his administration of the property, Mr. Woolley raised the labor liens and spent about $500,000 in alterations, improvements and in rebuilding the factory, until today it is considered by experts to be one of the most modern sugar plants in the intermountain region.

MAY SELL STOCK.
The minority stockholders of the company, it was said last night, will receive, if they wish to sell, $190 per share for their stock, and will, moreover, participate in the judgment found against Mr. Hendrickson and Mr. Stohl if the supreme court upholds the judgment of the Third district court. The matter now is before the higher court. With interest this judgment now amounts to slightly in excess of $200,000, in which the 200 minority stockholders may participate. Mr. Woolley severed his connection with the company on Thursday, and his resignation was accepted at the stockholders' meeting yesterday. Mr. Woolley was succeeded as president by David C. West.

The West Cache came into partial liquidation last night and was sold as a result of the litigation in the Third district court, which resulted in the finding of judgments against Mr. Hendrickson and Mr. Stohl for alleged conspiracy of promotion profits from the company.

Mr. Hendrickson yesterday said that minority stockholders of the West Cache should not be prevented from the sale of their stock, or about 7-1/2 per cent of the stock issued, had attended the meeting in order to make a proper sale of the stock.

Mr. Hendrickson also stated that steps will be taken by these minority stockholders in the Third district court today, to endeavor to prevent the consummation of the sale, alleging "mismanagement of the company and improper handling of its affairs."

LOTS OF DUCKS
HUNTERS CLAIM

Many Nimrods Return Home
With Limit for First
Day's Shooting

"Lots of ducks. More than ever before and better shooting generally than in past years."
This was the summing up this morning of the first day of the open season for ducks by W. H. "Buck" Anderson, county game warden. Many hunters got their limit yesterday morning before 8 o'clock. Warden Anderson said, "and in but a few instances were hunters disappointed. There has been but one locality reported where there was but few birds than last year. This was in the northwest section of the county. Hunters generally were abiding by the regulations set out by the government and state with the exception of shooting before and after sunrise and sunset. He declared that this practice must stop at once and all his deputies were notified today to arrest all offenders. If hunters insist upon shooting before sunrise and after sunset on the feeding grounds, it will spoil the sport for the entire day in the vicinity. The birds will become frightened and will seek new fields. In the interest of those who are sportsmen and are helping the game by abiding by the laws, the others should stop the unlawful practice," Warden Anderson said.

"The government and the state departments are pressing us hard to punish these violators and in the future early and late shooters will be immediately arrested and prosecuted to the full extent of the law."
Hunters who went to the shooting grounds west of Ogden yesterday morning returned with full bags in the majority of cases. The same conditions were found in other sections of the county and good shooting was found, with the exception of the northwest section.

The ducks are reported as being in fine shape and of good size. Warden Anderson announced the time to begin shooting was 7 o'clock and urged that hunters not fire even a minute earlier than this time. Tomorrow evening shooting should stop at 6:07 o'clock according to Warden Anderson.

ROOSEVELT PREDICTS DEMOCRATIC SUCCESS

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 2.—Speaking before a crowd which packed the tabernacle last night and fought for admission in the streets outside, Franklin D. Roosevelt predicted success for the Democratic national ticket this fall because of the great moral influence in the United States were overwhelmingly in favor of the league of nations. The Republican policy on the league is based on fear, he said, while the Democratic policy is based on faith and history has shown that an appeal to the faith of the American people has never been in vain.

The league of nations was Mr. Roosevelt's principal theme. He again charged that Republican opposition to the league was based on conspiracy engineered by Will Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee at a "campaign of insidious propaganda and distortion." He said that more than eighty of the heads of churches were in favor of the United States joining the league. The same is true, he added, of the professors and teachers in the universities, colleges, high and primary schools—men and women who represent in very true fashion the thinking element in our electorate.

LODGE MAKES HOT TALK AGAINST WILSON RECORD

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 2.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican leader of the senate, in an address here last night attacked the leadership of President Wilson, declaring the conduct of the war marked by "wild extravagance and reckless expenditure of money," denounced the covenant of the league of nations and urged the voters of Connecticut to reject Senator Brandegee, and that in aviation we were entirely dependent on our allies.

Senator Lodge referred to the first article of the league of nations covenant as a "rat hole." He said it would bind the United States to an obligation which could not be avoided except by breach of the treaty. He said a "hostile senate," did not help any administration and that he felt sure that Harding and Coolidge would be elected in the next election, and be given "a larger working majority in the senate, a much abused and in the whole, a rather powerful body."

FARMER BENEFIT HARDING'S TOPIC

Holds Agriculture Really of Greatest Interest to City
Dwellers

WEST JEFFERSON, O., Oct. 2.—Advocating an agricultural and industrial policy to coordinate American resources for the common good, Senator Harding declared in a speech at a Republican rally here today that "one for all and all for one" must be the motto of individual effort if the nation is to achieve its full potentialities. "I want to see American life so knit together," he said, "and every American so appreciative of the fact that the welfare of his fellow is his own welfare, that we will go forward to weave a great and humane pattern of united Americanism."

"It is impossible to pull one of the threads of that great fabric without starting the unravelling of the prosperity of all of us," he added.

BETTERMENT OF FARMER.
Making a particular appeal for betterment of the condition of the farmer, the senator asserted that agricultural production really was of greater interest to those who live in cities than to the farmers themselves. As a part of the same community of interest, he said, transportation facilities must be developed and a rehabilitated railway system supplemented by inland waterway development and by commercial use of motor trucks to carry freight.

The senator reiterated his belief that farmers should be given the right of cooperative marketing, should be encouraged through the federal farm loan system to own the farms they live on, should be assured stable transportation facilities and a stable labor supply, and should have government protection against unfair competition from abroad. He also advocated a better system of rural education and a higher standard of farm social welfare, and declared that profiteering "must be squeezed out."

RURAL EDUCATION.
Discussing in detail the problems of rural education, Mr. Harding took occasion to speak a word for the education of adults in current events, and events of local and national importance. "The true bulwark against extreme radicalism," he said, "is there more cause for alarm than in the fact that the annual school term of the rural school in the United States only averages one hundred and thirty-seven days a year. We must have no bureaucracy of the federal government in education, but we owe to the childhood of the nation to place at its disposal the utmost in educational facilities."

NAVAL SECRETARY RAPS
G. O. P. RULE IN SENATE

REIDSVILLE, N. C., Oct. 2.—Asserting that the Republican party did not "win" control of the senate in 1915, but "bought it," Secretary Daniels declared in an address yesterday that "never before have the hopes and desires of the American people been frustrated by purchase of control in the senate."
The Republican majority is "today out on bail," Mr. Daniels said, adding that "as soon as the supreme court acts it will be in the penitentiary."

But for the purchase of a seat in the senate from Michigan, the secretary declared, "the Republicans could not have organized the senate, could not have backed the foreign relations committee against the league of nations, could not have packed the finance committee against any reduction in taxes and could not have packed other committees against any legislation looking to the reduction of the cost of living. By means of this slender and corrupt majority, every measure looking to world peace and world stability and national development has been frustrated."

JAPS AND BRITISH HOLD

It is unofficially declared the British government is backing Mackenzie. A similar concession in Lower California has been secured by the British government and Japan dominates the same industry in the state of Sonora, according to reports in newspapers here, which combine official and unofficial statements.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Senator Harding and Governor Cox pledged themselves if elected to enforce the eighteenth amendment. This statement was made today by Daniel A. Poling, president of the National Temperance council, in making public communications received from both candidates in reply to queries.

"This is a representative republic government ruled by the majority as expressed at the polls or in the laws formulated by elected representatives and it is the duty of every citizen to support the government," said Governor Cox.

"I recognize the 18th amendment as a definite part of the constitution and the laws enacted thereunder will be observed and enforced."

AMERICAN SHIP LINES COMPETE WITH REBATES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Coast General Skinner at London officially today that the recent conference between a committee of the United States shipping board, representatives of foreign lines, and the United States shipping board, representatives of foreign lines, had said the question of participation in regular trade between the United Kingdom and the European countries was discussed.

Consul-General Skinner said the shipping board held that since America and the allies fought together in war they should work together in peace and that the foreign representatives expressed approval of sharing trade with United States vessels on equal terms.

"European lines, however, practice rebate systems," the consul-general stated, "and in view of the Sherman act the shipping board was unable to agree immediately to follow foreign customs. (The shipping board) commissioner hopes, however, that an agreement will be reached on this point and states that prospects of harmonious relations between America and foreign lines are excellent."
